Spurgeon Quotes on Prayer:

- All good is born in prayer, and all good springs from it.
- Continue in prayer, and though the blessing tarry, it must come; in God's own time it must appear to you.
- There has never been an instance yet of a man really seeking spiritual blessings from God without his receiving them.
- Whether we like it or not, asking is the rule of the kingdom.
- Anything is a blessing which makes us pray.
- I would rather teach one man to pray than ten men to preach.
- When God's mercies are coming, their footfalls are our desires to pray.
- ... he that is never on his knees on earth, shall never stand upon his feet in heaven.
- ...[the] power of prayer can never be overrated. They who cannot serve God by preaching need not regret. If a man can but pray he can do anything. He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has Heaven and earth at his disposal.
- ...True prayer is measured by weight, not by length. A single groan before God may have more fullness of prayer in it than a fine oration of great length.
