Spurgeon Quotes on Prayer:

- If you may have everything by asking in His name, and nothing without asking, I beg you to see how absolutely vital prayer is.
- If your faith does not make you pray, have nothing to do with it: get rid of it, and God help thee to begin again.
- Oh, those cold-hearted prayers that die on our lips! Those frozen supplications would not even move men's hearts, how should they move the heart of God?
- Our growth in prayer may be to us the test of our growth in all other respects.
- Our Lord tells us an indisputable fact: all through the ages, true asking has been followed by receiving.
- Our prayers may be very beautiful in appearance and might appear to be the very paragon of devotion, but unless there is a secret spiritual force in them, they are vain things.
- Pray until you can pray; pray to be helped to pray and do not give up praying because you cannot pray. For it is when you think you cannot pray that is when you are praying.
