Spurgeon Quotes on Prayer:

- Prayer can never be in excess.
- Prayer girds human weakness with divine strength, turns human folly into heavenly wisdom, and gives to troubled mortals the peace of God. We know not what prayer can do.
- Prayer is a creature's strength, his very breathe and being.
- Prayer is not a hard requirement-it is the natural duty of a creature to its creator, the simplest homage that human need can pay to divine liberality.
- Prayer is the slender nerve that moveth the muscle of Omnipotence.
- Proud prayers may knock their heads on mercy's lintel, but they can never pass through the portal.
